NEW FOR 2010

CHINA POLICY SEMINAR

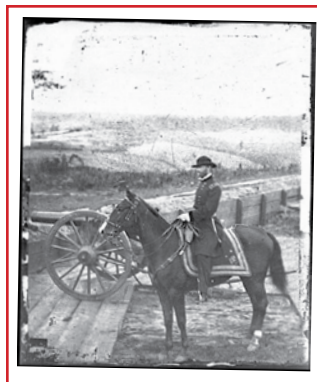

July 24 - July 31 2010
Valley Forge, PA

This week long seminar is designed to introduce teachers to the history and culture of China, as well as its evolving relationship with the United States. Teachers will be able to transfer the seminar into the classroom and help educate students on what will be a defining power of the the twenty-first century. As China's influence grows from regional hegemony to that of global influence, it is increasingly important to understand how and why this has happened and what impact it will have on global politics and economics.

- Lectures given by influential scholars and professionals
- Explore China's emerging global role
- Examine the dichotomy of politics and economics
- Explore the diverse culture of the world's most populous nation

PROGRAM INFORMATION

TUITION

Tuition is $1,300 per person, per program. $650 is due upon acceptance, with balance at beginning of the program. For the two workshops, tuition covers double-occupancy hotel accommodations, admissions, tour transportation, and one graduate credit (meals not included); for the China Policy Seminar, tuition covers lodging at the Freedoms Foundation Valley Forge campus, meals, instruction, admissions, tour transportation and one graduate credit. Financial assistance is available to qualified applicants.

SCHOLARSHIPS

Through the generosity of the MJ Murdock Charitable Trust, scholarships are available for qualified teachers from the following states: ALASKA • IDAHO • MONTANA • OREGON • WASHINGTON. A limited number of scholarships are available on a first-come, first-served basis for teachers from other states thanks to many other supporting organizations and foundations. Financial aid is available for teachers not sponsored by a partner organization.

ACCREDITATION

Each program includes one graduate credit hour, which is granted by Immaculata University (www.immaculata.edu) in Immaculata, PA. Enrolled students who wish to earn either two or three credits must pay $150 to Freedoms Foundation for each additional hour.

ABOUT THE FREEDOMS FOUNDATION

Founded in 1949, the Freedoms Foundation is a national, not-for-profit, non-partisan, non-sectarian organization. The Freedoms Foundation provides a wide range of educational programs for students and teachers that include U.S. history, leadership, constitutional rights, citizen responsibilities, student entrepreneurship, and the free enterprise system.

The Freedoms Foundation is located on an 85-acre campus adjoining Valley Forge National Historical Park. The headquarters complex houses student dormitories, teaching facilities, and a unique 52-acre grove honoring all recipients of the Congressional Medal of Honor.

“An outstanding learning and enrichment experience. I am looking forward to bringing this first-hand knowledge back to my classroom and sharing it with my students.”

“A great combination of guided tours, instruction, and discussion.”
